

Leading Teams

Objectives:

By the end of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Define team
- Identify characteristics of an effective team
- Implement steps to build a team
- Identify team-player styles
- Recognize stages of development

Summary

An effective team is one that achieves high levels of performance, member satisfaction, and the ability to work well together on an ongoing basis. For teams to be effective they must have a climate of openness and trust, a clear purpose, specific roles and work assignments, and effective conflict resolution.

Leading Teams includes a self-assessment to identify individual style, team building techniques, and group discussions over case studies that prepare the participants for applying the principles of team leadership.
